

REVIEW QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS (Continued)

CHAPTER 4

1. The elected officer responsible for managing the flotilla is the FC.
4.A Introduction
2. The elected officer responsible for managing the division is the DCP.
4.B Introduction
3. The elected officer responsible for managing the district is the DCO.
4.C Introduction
4. The elected officer responsible for managing the national organization is the NACO. 4.D Introduction
5. For an initial charter, a flotilla must consist of at least 15 Auxiliary members unless waived by the District Commander. 4.A.1
6. Primary responsibility for initiating efforts to start a new flotilla rests with the DCO. 4.A.2
7. Disestablishment of a flotilla must be considered if membership falls below 10 members. 4.A.6
8. DCP may place a flotilla on probation, and must inform each flotilla member with the reason for probation, the probationary period, and the conditions for probation removal. 4.A.6.a
9. A recommendation for disestablishment requires a two-thirds majority of the division board member vote. 4.A.6.b
10. Assets of a disestablished or disbanded flotilla become the property of
 - a. the members of the disestablished flotilla
 - b. the Division 4.A.6.d
 - c. the District
 - d. the National Board
11. A flotilla detachment (IS/IS NOT) an independent unit. 4.A.7
12. The leader of a flotilla detachment is appointed by the FC. (TRUE/FALSE) 4.A.7.b
13. At a flotilla meeting, a quorum of one-quarter of the eligible voting members is required to conduct business unless otherwise specified in the flotilla standing rules. 4.A.8

REVIEW QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS (Continued)

14. Absentee voting may be allowed by the Director for members in good standing.
(TRUE/FALSE) 4.A.8.b and c
15. A division must have 5 or more flotillas unless waived by the District Commander. 4.B Introduction
16. If a division falls below 5 flotillas, what actions may be taken by the District Commander?
a) grant a waiver
b) disestablish the division 4.B.6
17. Who are the voting members of the division board?
DCP, VCP, IPDCP, every FC of the division, and the DCO (ex officio) 4.E.2
18. When may a vice elected officer conduct a board meeting?
When the FC or DCP is unable to attend. 4.E.1.a
19. Who may vote at a board meeting in the absence of the elected unit officer or vice officer?
The Immediate Past Officer will have a vote unless specified otherwise in writing by that unit's senior elected officer. Otherwise, the senior elected officer must designate another representative who will have NO VOTE on the board. 4.E.1.a
20. To carry a motion, what kind of vote is required?
Except where a two-thirds majority is required, an affirmative vote of a majority of an administrative board, present and actually voting, is necessary to carry a motion (Abstentions do not count in the total for determining votes cast). 4.E.1.c
21. Who are the voting members of the District Board?
DIRAUX, DCO, IPDCO, VCO, RCOs, all DCPs in district, the NACO (ex officio) and in some districts the President of the Past Captains Association. 4.E.3
22. The term of newly elected flotilla and division officers begins on January 1 of the year following their election. 4.F.1
23. The purpose of the "vice officer" is to function as the unit chief of staff. 4.F.11.a

REVIEW QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS (Continued)

24. Who reports to a "vice officer"?
- a. elected officers at the highest level
 - b. staff officers at the next highest level
 - c. no one has to report to a vice elected officer
 - d. staff officers at the same unit level 4.F.11.a
25. The Director is responsible for approving election results. 4.F.3
26. All flotilla elections must be held by 15 December. Appendix D.5
27. A member who has completed the AUXMIN specialty course or the Administrative Procedures Course (APC) is eligible for nomination to elected office. (TRUE/FALSE) 4.F.2
28. The requirements for FC eligibility include:
- a) must be a member at least one year prior to nomination.
 - b) currently certified, as of the date of election, as VE, IT, or in Operations.
- Appendix D.1
29. What is the term of office for a VFC? One year Appendix D.7
30. What are the eligibility requirements for a DCP?
- a) served at least one regular term (12 months) as a member of the Division board
 - b) any Auxiliarist transferring from another division, provided Auxiliarist fulfills eligibility requirements for VCP or DCP
 - c) active for the 12 months preceding the election and currently certified, as of the date of election, in VE, IT, or Operations
- Appendix D.11
31. How many terms are authorized for the DCP? Four terms, provided no more than two are consecutive. Appendix D.13
32. What is the length of term of office for a DCO? Two years Appendix D.22
33. How many terms are authorized for a DCO? One term Appendix D.23
34. What is the length of term of office for a RCO? One year Appendix D.32
35. How many terms are authorized for a RCO? Two terms Appendix D.33