

REVIEW QUESTIONS (Continued)

CHAPTER 4

1. The elected officer responsible for managing the flotilla is the _____ .
2. The elected officer responsible for managing the division is the _____.
3. The elected officer responsible for managing the district is the _____ .
4. The elected officer responsible for managing the national organization is the _____ .
5. For an initial charter, a flotilla must consist of at least _____ Auxiliary members unless waived by the District Commander.
6. Primary responsibility for initiating efforts to start a new flotilla rests with the _____ .
7. Disestablishment of a flotilla must be considered if membership falls below _____ members.
8. _____ may place a flotilla on probation, and must inform each flotilla member with the reason for probation, the probationary period, and the conditions for probation removal.
9. A recommendation for disestablishment requires a _____majority of the division board member vote.
10. Assets of a disestablished or disbanded flotilla become the property of
 - a. the members of the disestablished flotilla
 - b. the Division
 - c. the District
 - d. the National Board
11. A flotilla detachment (IS/IS NOT) an independent unit.
12. The leader of a flotilla detachment is appointed by the FC. (TRUE/FALSE).
13. At a flotilla meeting, a quorum of _____ of the eligible voting members is required to conduct business unless otherwise specified in the flotilla standing rules.
14. Absentee voting may be allowed by the Director for members in good standing. (TRUE/FALSE).

REVIEW QUESTIONS (Continued)

15. A division must have _____ or more flotillas unless waived by the District Commander.
16. If a division falls below 5 flotillas, what actions may be taken by the District Commander?
 - a)
 - b)
17. Who are the voting members of the division board?
18. When may a vice elected officer conduct a board meeting?
19. Who may vote at a board meeting in the absence of the elected unit officer or vice officer?
20. To carry a motion, what kind of vote is required?
21. Who are the voting members of the District Board?
22. The term of newly elected flotilla and division officers begins on _____.
23. The purpose of the "vice officer" is to function as _____.
24. Who reports to a "vice officer"?
 - a. elected officers at the highest level
 - b. staff officers at the next highest level
 - c. no one has to report to a vice elected officer
 - d. staff officers at the same unit level

REVIEW QUESTIONS (Continued)

25. The _____ is responsible for approving election results.
26. All flotilla elections must be held by _____.
27. A member who has completed the AUXMIN specialty course or the Administrative Procedures Course (APC) is eligible for nomination to elected office. (TRUE/FALSE)
28. The requirements for FC eligibility include:
29. What is the term of office for a VFC? _____.
30. What are the eligibility requirements for a DCP?
31. How many terms are authorized for the DCP? _____.
32. What is the length of term of office for a DCO? _____.
33. How many terms are authorized for a DCO? _____.
34. What is the length of term of office for a RCO? _____.
35. How many terms are authorized for a RCO? _____.